UNIVERSITY of ALASKA ANCHORAGE

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

The A.A.S. in Human Services is a UAA degree program being supported on the KPC campus and prepares students for entry-level employment with human service agencies. Students can also work towards their Bachelor of Arts in Human Services.

Students acquire knowledge of human behavior and relationships; knowledge of social problem areas; skills in helping approaches and problem solving skills. The A.A.S. degree, with its extensive practicum and course work in counseling, can be a terminal degree or used as a foundation to articulate into the B.A. in Human Services or Psychology. For more information, contact Bettina Kipp at KRC 262-0334 or Sue Coble at KBC 235-1604.
