

KPC WANTS YOU TO TEACH!

Kenai Peninsula College/UAA
In Soldotna, Homer, Anchorage, Seward

KPC is experiencing explosive growth, particularly in online education, and needs more part-time instructors in academic and career/technical areas.

Instructors needed for:

- ✓ Accounting & Computerized Accounting Systems
- ✓ American Sign Language
- ✓ Anthropology
- ✓ Art
- ✓ Biology & Microbiology
- ✓ Business
- ✓ Chemistry
- ✓ Emergency Medical. Tech.
- ✓ English
- ✓ Environmental Studies
- ✓ History
- ✓ Industrial Process Instrumentation
- ✓ Languages
- ✓ Math
- ✓ Nutrition
- ✓ Occupational Safety & Health
- ✓ Oral Communication
- ✓ Philosophy
- ✓ Physics
- ✓ Process & Petroleum Technology
- ✓ Social Work
- ✓ Sociology

We're especially looking for qualified instructors to teach online college credit classes as we continue to expand our distance education program. If you have taught online or via eLive before, we are interested in knowing more about you.

You can live anywhere in Alaska and teach for KPC!

Adjuncts for academic areas should have a Masters degree in the discipline or related subject area. Career/technical education adjuncts must have a Bachelors degree or extensive expertise in the subject area. Adjuncts receive a 3-credit tuition waiver each semester they teach. These waivers, valued at $423, can be also be used by family members.

Interested? Visit the KPC website,
<http://www.kpc.alaska.edu/administration/employment.html>
Applications must be filed electronically via the UAK Jobs web site at: www.uakjobs.com/applicants/Central?quickFind=64387

Call 262-0317 for additional information.

"An Equal Employment Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer and educational institution.