Directed study checklist:

- Determine course — must be a permanent catalog course not being offered during the chosen semester.
- Obtain instructor (regular or term faculty member only) and dean/designee approval and signatures.
- Submit directed study form to the Office of the Registrar. Registration must be completed by the directed study deadline -- allow three business days for processing. Registration may be verified through UAOnline.

Notes:

- It is the student's responsibility to ensure all signatures are obtained, that this form is submitted to Office of the Registrar before the directed study deadline, and that all assessed tuition and fees are paid.
- By submitting directed study form to the Office of the Registrar, student will be registered for and financially responsible for requested course.
- Retroactive registration is not permitted. Forms received after the directed study deadline will not be processed.
