For Immediate Release

KPC's Opening Ceremony for MAPTS Building and Kenai River Campus annual Welcome Back Community BBQ

The public is invited to a ribbon cutting ceremony for KPC's new $3 million Mining and Petroleum Training Services facility at 3 p.m., Thursday, August 23, 2007 at the Kenai River Campus in Soldotna. After the ribbon cutting ceremony the building will be open to the public for viewing.

Immediately following the ceremony the public is invited to the annual KPC Welcome Back BBQ from 4-7 p.m. The event marks the start of a new academic year and KPC's 43rd year as a college. Festivities will take place on campus behind the Goodrich and McLane buildings along the banks of the Kenai River.

These events are being held in conjunction with the first day of general walk-in registration for the fall semester. Walk-in registration will continue from 10 a.m. - 5 p.m., Friday, August 24. Online registration at www.kpc.alaska.edu continues through August 25. Fall semester classes start on August 27.
