KPC/UAA “Share the Spirit” Presentation

In celebration of Alaska Native/Native American Heritage Month, KPC/UAA’s Kenai River Campus in Soldotna presents “Share the Spirit” at 12:30 p.m., Monday, November 12 in the commons. The public is encouraged to attend this free presentation.

Hear Earl “Keggulluk” Polk telling the stories told to him by his grandfather, as well as lessons he’s learned growing up with his own cultural diversity. He has been a 727 pilot, and inventor. It’s open to the public, and he’s focusing on “Ucin Pinircaglucii,” Upik for “Strengthening the Spirit”.

This event is presented by the Kenai Peninsula College Multicultural Consortium, the Anna Fossett Goodrich Foundation, and the KPC Showcase.
